

Theresa Marzahn

What is Important to Me:

- * Spending time with family & friends. My family always comes first!
- * My little girl, Rylee, is my greatest accomplishment to date.
- * I love playing basketball and softball.
- * I love to go camping during the summer!
- * I am a Michigan Wolverines fan so I watch all of their games.
- * Holidays are huge for me. Christmas is my favorite!
- * I love living in South Dakota as this was where I was born & raised.

What Others Like & Admire About Me:

- * I am a very kind & caring person.
- * I have a huge heart for helping others.
- * I pay attention to details & deadlines.
- * I am easy to communicate with!
- * I can find common ground with just about anyone. Meeting new people is easy for me.

- Professional Background -

I have supported people with developmental disabilities since 2008 while working at the Center for Independence. I have been a direct support professional, case manager and service coordinator. I have supervised residential & vocational services.

I was a member of the Human Rights & Admissions Committees.

How to Support Me:

- * Be honest with me.
- * Understand that I may not have every answer right away. I may need time to look into things and get back to you.
- * Take time to get to know me and I will do the same in return.
- * The best way to communicate with me is a phone call or email.
