

Chris Mullett

Conflict Free Case Manager

Experience:

Graduate of South Dakota State University - Bachelor's in Psychology

DSS Child Protection Case Manager

OAHE, INC. Personal Outcomes Coordinator - 4 years

RHD Conflict Free Case Manager - 5 years

Important to me:

- My family! I have 4 kids, and enjoy creating time, memories, and laughter with them!
- I enjoy having hobbies and keeping up on my interests, these include: watching football, playing softball, watching my kids' activities of soccer, swimming, dance, volleyball
- Feeling a sense of accomplishment in any aspect is important to me. Succeeding or seeing/helping someone succeed is something that drives me.
- It is important to me to develop and maintain relationships in all aspects of my life.
- It is important to me be organized and prepared

What People Like About me:

- Open, friendly, and approachable
- Caring and supportive
- Organized and detail orientated
- Resourceful
- Listen and easy to talk to, communicates well

How to Best Support Me:

- Have an open mind/being open to try new things: I enjoy trial and error – finding out what works for me, you, or the situation.
- Use "teachable moments" and open communication – feel comfortable to talk to me about what is or isn't working and if it isn't openly communicate or teach me what could be done better/differently
- Allow me to process new things/information – I enjoy bouncing ideas or new information off of others and getting feedback
- I can be shy at first but usually warm up quickly, I find myself as an outgoing person after I've felt comfortable

Contact

chris.mullett@rhd.org

605-254-6840

